

GET INVOLVED: Clayton County Board of Commissioners is holding its next regular business meeting on August 15.

PUBLIC SAFETY: Council mandates continuous surveillance at gas stations and convenience stores

Atlanta City Council: Public Safety & Legal Administration Committee

Documented by: J.P. Irie

THE NOTES: read here

VIEW THE MEETING: watch here

THE BREAKDOWN:

Several Atlantans showed up to support ordinance 23-O-1346, which mandates continuous surveillance systems inside gas stations, convenience stores, and at gas station pumps, as well as the quick delivery of footage to the police whenever an incident there occurs. The ordinance was approved unanimously.

GET INVOLVED: The ordinance goes to a full vote on August 7 at the Atlanta City Council meeting; the Atlanta City Council: Public Safety & Legal Administration Committee is holding its next meeting on August 14.

DEVELOPMENT: Fort Mac redevelopment moves forward with land sales to large developers