COLUMBUS REGIONAL MEDICAL FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES NEW SPECIAL EVENTS ASSISTANT Danielle Wright to Join Fundraising Team

COLUMBUS, GA – Jennifer Johnson, Special Events Coordinator, Columbus Regional Medical Foundation, announces the hiring of Auburn University graduate Danielle Wright as the special events assistant.

Wright will begin the new job immediately after receiving her Bachelor of Arts in Communication from Auburn University. She is currently finishing an internship with The American Cancer Society in Auburn, AL. The new job will entail numerous duties including coordinating the Celebrity Classic Golf and Tennis Tournaments and 5K/10K Runs, fundraising for the John B. Amos Cancer Center.

Wright is ready to get started with these new challenges. "I'm ready to begin this new chapter in my life. I'm excited about graduating and beginning work for this great foundation."

Columbus Regional Medical Foundation is a private fund-raising program raising millions to support care and educational programs for the Columbus Regional Healthcare System. They hold numerous events and work alongside the Children's Miracle Network to raise money in the community each year.
